

Clyde Ferguson Bull Traveling Fellowship for Fall 2017, Spring 2018 and academic year 2017-18

Deadline is Friday, March 10, 2017 for submitting an application!

Miss Clyde Ferguson Bull (a French major in the Class of 1926) endowed a fund that provides a fellowship for a student to study in France with a program approved by the Department of French Studies.

You may now apply for a fellowship for fall semester 2017 or spring semester 2018 for $7,500 or the academic year 2017-18. The fellowship provides $15,000 for the full academic year 2017-2018 and $7,500 for a single semester. The department may offer a fellowship to more than one qualified candidate. In addition, you may normally apply any Rice financial aid to programs affiliated with the university. Your Rice financial aid will not be affected by this fellowship.

Eligibility:

1. Have completed at least one 300-level course before leaving for France.
2. Have a GPA in French of at least 3.00 and also an overall GPA of at least 3.00.
3. Enroll in a program in France approved by the Department of French Studies.
4. Commit to taking at least one French course each semester after returning from France.

The applications for this fellowship are available on-line (see the department webpage) or in the office of the Department of French Studies (RH 207) and should be submitted to the departmental office no later than Friday, March 10, 2017. There is no penalty for early submission!

The deadline for application for most study abroad programs in France for spring semester 2018 is October 15 and the deadline for academic year 2017-18 is normally March 15.

The candidates will be interviewed in French soon after the deadline. If you have any questions concerning this fellowship, please contact Professor Deborah Nelson-Campbell (dnelson@rice.edu).
